

La Danse Fatale Contribution Information

Founded in 2003 by dancer, instructor, and choreographer Julia Levina – La Danse Fatale performing arts company has become a favorite of the community. Since our inception in 2003, La Danse Fatale has performed in many Twin Cities venues including the Children’s Theatre and Eden Prairie Performing Arts Center, as well as outdoor venues at the Lake Harriet Bandshell and Staring Lake Park. La Danse Fatale is comprised of dancers ranging from ages 12 to 18 years of age. We offer performing opportunities for serious dancers as a transition to the professional stage.

As a non-profit youth ballet company, we rely on our dance families, fundraisers, and other supporters to purchase costumes, props, sets, flooring, and all operating costs to put on our annual performance each year.

Below are the varied levels of contribution with corresponding appreciation incentives each level will receive. All contribution levels will receive acknowledgements in our performance programs and on our website, as well as receive social media mentions, tags, and thanks.
